Re: United States v. Joseph Mazella,
11-CR-300 (CBA)

Dear Chief Judge Amon:

As a follow up to my emergency application to allow my client Joseph Mazella to travel to Arizona to be with his dying father, to which the government objected, please be advised that I received the following email from him at 2:44 p.m. today:

“My dad died last night, 4 hours and ten minutes after we arrived at the house. Thank you again for your assistance, and if you can relay our gratitude to CJ Amon from my entire immediate family, for her humanitarian decision I would appreciate it.

Sincerely,

Joe”

I thank Your Honor for your courtesy and immediate response to my travel application.

Respectfully submitted,

Ephraim Savitt
